

Arielle Falk (b. 1983, Washington DC) is a Brooklyn-based multidisciplinary artist. She received her BA from Eugene Lang College (NYC) in 2007 and has since exhibited her work in numerous solo and group exhibitions. Venues include Halsey McKay Gallery (East Hampton, NY), Pablo's Birthday (New York, NY), Auxiliary Projects (Brooklyn, NY), Ronchini Gallery (London, UK), Annaruma Gallery (Naples, IT), and Interstate Projects (Brooklyn, NY). Falk also performed at Art Untitled Fair (Miami, FL) as part of their Special Project series and is a 2010-2011 recipient of the Franklin Furnace Fund for Performance Art. Most recently, Arielle was included in a two-person show at Safe Gallery (Brooklyn, NY). Her work has been noted by such publications as The NY Observer, The Village Voice, Time Out NY, The Huffington Post, and NY Magazine, as well as featured on WNYC Radio.